

Realizing Opportunities of the 21st Century for All

The G20 continues to focus on measures to support global economic growth, with a strong emphasis on promoting career creation and open trade. It's based on this, we decided to reach the world; outside of government organizations; by selecting satisfied people directly through 'People Activities Profiler System' in which you emerged one of our selected.

Complete your Form to enable our Empowerment Office to release your fund of 2,000,000 EUROS (Two Million Euros) in your name. Our aim is to create an adequate career by empowering those that are selected with sufficient capital to create a standard establishment that can provide a career to a minimum of 5 persons, thereby eliminating unemployment.

The G20 started in 1999 as a meeting of Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors in the aftermath of the Asian financial crisis. In 2008, the first G20 Leaders Summit was held, and the group played a key role in responding to the global financial crisis. Its decisive and coordinated actions boosted consumer and business confidence and supported the first stages of economic recovery.

The Group of Twenty (G20) is the premier forum for its members' international economic cooperation and decision-making. Its membership comprises 19 countries plus the European Union. G20 leaders meet annually, additionally during the year Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors meet regularly to discuss ways to strengthen the global economy, reform international financial institutions, improve financial regulation, and discuss the key economic reforms that are needed in each of the member countries. Underpinning these meetings is a year-long program of meetings among senior officials and of working groups coordinating policy on specific issues.
